Dear Paul:

We have had an inquiry from a Rev. Richard Eckert of the North Shore Baptist Church who stated he had requested a [REDACTED] to run some youth activities at the church. [REDACTED] was honest enough to tell the pastor that he is on the BSA "confidential" list.

Rev. Eckert has great confidence in [REDACTED] but thought he'd best check as to what the charges were, if any, against Mr. Sheffield.

Would you check the file and advise me.

Sincerely,

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

On Tuesday afternoon, February 24, 1970, I received a telephone call from [REDACTED], Institutional Representative, Christ Congregational Church, regarding [REDACTED] Cubmaster of Pack 3094 sponsored by this church.

A Mrs. [REDACTED], mother of a Cub Scout in Pack 3094, had contacted Mr. [REDACTED] regarding an incident which occurred at a Webelos Den Meeting on Monday evening, February 23. It is reported that [REDACTED] informed several boys they would be initiated into the pack that evening. These boys were then taken to an adjoining room and were told to undress. [REDACTED] then proceeded to fondle several of the Cubs.

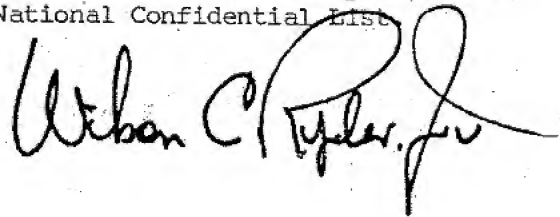

I immediately tried to contact [REDACTED] but was unsuccessful until 11:00 p.m. Tuesday evening. [REDACTED] admitted to me that the above report was true and asked what steps he should take. I advised him to resign from all Scout activities and to submit a resignation to me to that effect. Mr. [REDACTED] assured me that this resignation would be in the mail the following morning.

I have contacted all sponsoring institutions in which [REDACTED] was associated and have informed them that [REDACTED] has resigned from Scouting and would not be attending future Scout meetings and activities.

I am attaching [REDACTED] resignation. I would professionally recommend that [REDACTED] name be placed on our National Confidential List.
